NIAGARA COUNTY BICENTENNIAL BARN PAINTER FEATURED IN LATEST ISSUE OF TRACTOR SUPPLY COMPANY'S IN-STORE MAGAZINE

Article includes photos of Scott Hagan painting the bicentennial logo on barns in Niagara County last summer

NIAGARA COUNTY, NY – Nationally renowned barn painter Scott Hagan is featured in the winter edition of Tractor Supply Company's Out Here magazine, along with photos from his work painting the Niagara County bicentennial logo on area barns. The front cover and several photos within the article illustrate Hagan's painting of the Truesdale barn along Cain Road in Youngstown. The entire article can be found at TractorSupply.com/OutHere. The county's official bicentennial logo was painted on the sides of twelve barns in each of the twelve townships across Niagara County this past summer.

Out Here is Tractor Supply Company's quarterly in-store magazine that celebrates the lifestyle and values of men, women and families who embrace the spirit of independence and pride that they've found under the stars and away from the urban bustle. It is currently available in the chain's more than 700 stores in 38 states.
